FINAL FEE APPLICATION OF COVINGTON & BURLING LLP, FOREIGN TRADE AND SPECIAL CORPORATE COMMITTEE LEGAL COUNSEL
TO THE DEBTORS AND DEBTORS-IN-POSSESSION,
FOR ALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION FOR SERVICES
RENDERED AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES INCURRED
FOR THE PERIOD FROM OCTOBER 8, 2005 THROUGH JANUARY 25, 2008

TO: THE HONORABLE ROBERT D. DRAIN
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

Covington & Burling LLP (“Covington”), foreign trade and special corporate committee legal counsel to the above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively, “Delphi”, the “Company” or the “Debtors”), submits this application (the “Final Application”) for (a) allowance of compensation in the amount of $32,882.00 for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in the amount of $73.59 from October 1, 2007, through January 25, 2008 (the “Seventh Application Period”) and (b) for final approval of fees in the amount of $1,883,390.41 and expenses in the amount of $60,324.00 incurred from October 8, 2005, through January 25, 2008.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. By this Final Application and pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), Covington requests that the Court authorize: (a) interim allowance of compensation for professional services Covington rendered during the Seventh Application Period in the amount of $32,882.00; (b) the reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses Covington incurred in rendering such professional services in the amount of $73.59; and (c) final allowance of the aggregate fees and expenses Covington incurred from October 8, 2005, through January 25, 2008, in the amounts of $1,883,390.41 and $60,324.00, respectively.

2. The Final Application reflects the time, skill and effort Covington expended during the Seventh Application Period providing assistance to the Company as its foreign trade and special corporate committee legal counsel. Covington has advised and assisted the Company on U.S. foreign trade control matters, and prepared and drafted the sixth interim application (the “Sixth Application”) and all supporting documents and addressed ongoing supplemental disclosure issues.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over this Final Application pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue of these cases and this Final Application is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This matter is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

GENERAL BACKGROUND

4. On October 8, 2005 (the “Petition Date”), Delphi and certain of its U.S. subsidiaries filed voluntary petitions in this Court for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On October 14, 2005, three additional U.S. subsidiaries of Delphi also sought relief in this Court under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. This Court entered orders directing the joint administration of the Debtors’ chapter 11 cases (Docket Nos. 28 and 404).

5. On June 1, 2009, the Debtors sought approval of certain modifications to a plan or reorganization that was confirmed on January 25, 2009 (the “Modified Plan”). This Court entered an order approving the Modified Plan on July 30, 2009 (Docket No. 18707).

6. On October 6, 2009, the Debtors substantially consumed the Modified Plan and the effective Date occurred.

7. Interim Fee Orders. The Court has issued a number of orders governing the procedures for professionals to seek compensation from the Debtors’ estates, with which this Final Application complies, including:

- a) The First Interim Compensation Order dated November 4, 2005 (Docket No. 869);
- b) The First and Second Supplemental Orders dated March 8, 2006 and March 28, 2006 (Docket Nos. 2747 and 2986);
- c) The Joint Interest Agreement Order dated April 18, 2006 (Docket No. 3279;;
- d) The Third Interim Compensation Order dated May 5, 2006 (Docket No. 3630), which established the Fee Committee;
- e) The Fourth Interim Compensation Order dated July 13, 2006 (Docket No. 4545);
- f) The Fifth Interim Compensation Order dated October 13, 2006 (Docket No. 5310);

- g) The Sixth Interim Compensation Order dated February 25, 2008 (Docket No. 12883).

The Fee Committee issued guidelines on June 19, 2006 (the “Fee Committee Guidelines”).

8. Covington’s Retention. On February 17, 2006, the Debtors filed an Application for Order under 11 U.S.C. §§ 327(e) and 1107(b) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2014 Authorizing Employment and Retention of Covington & Burling as Foreign Trade and Special Corporate Committee Legal Counsel to Debtors (Docket No. 2424) (the “Retention Application”), seeking the retention of Covington nunc pro tunc to October 8, 2005.

9. On March 9, 2006, the Court granted the Retention Application, authorizing the employment and retention of Covington as Foreign Trade and Special Corporate Committee Legal Counsel to the Debtors (Docket No. 2769) (the “Retention Order”).

10. Covington’s Pre-Petition Claim. Before the Petition Date, Covington performed numerous services for the Debtors. As a result of these prepetition services, Covington was owed approximately $263,559.79, for which Covington filed a timely proof of claim. Neither the compensation nor expenses requested pursuant to this Final Application includes any portion of this amount. See Certification Pursuant to Local Guidelines, US Trustee Guidelines and Fee Committee Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements attached as Exhibit A. With Delphi’s consent, Covington sold its claim and no longer holds a claim against the Debtors.

11. Covington’s Fee Applications. Covington has previously submitted six fee applications, aggregating $1,916,251.62 in fees and expenses, as summarized in the table below. Covington voluntarily reduced the fees and expenses sought in the first six applications in the aggregate amount of $65,833.21¹. On March 16, 20, 22, June 27, 2007, October 25, 2007 and February 25, 2008, the Court issued omnibus orders granting, inter alia, Covington's fees and expenses in the aggregate amount of $1,850,508.41.

COVINGTON'S FEES AND EXPENSES

12. Covington's services in these cases have been necessary and beneficial to the Debtors, the Debtors' creditors, and other parties-in-interest. Throughout the case in general and the Seventh Application Period in particular, Covington has addressed a variety of issues that required Covington, in the discharge of its professional responsibilities, to devote time by its professionals on an ongoing basis.

13. Covington has submitted timely invoices for postpetition services rendered to the Special Committee and to the Debtors for payment pursuant to the Interim Compensation Orders. No agreement or understanding exists between Covington or any other entity for the sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in or in connection with this case.

14. Covington's personnel maintain written contemporaneous records of the time expended in rendering professional services to the Debtors and the Special Committee. A copy of the daily time records for the Seventh Application Period, broken down by matter and listing the name of the attorney or paraprofessional, the date on which the services were performed, and the amount of time spent in performing the services, is attached as Exhibit B.

15. Attached as Exhibit C is a list of the attorneys and paraprofessionals who have worked on Delphi matters during the Seventh Application Period, the aggregate time expended by each individual during the Seventh Application Period, his or her hourly billing rate during the Seventh Application Period, and the amount of Covington's fees attributable to each individual. Additionally, included as part of Exhibit D is a list of all the matters for which services were rendered and the aggregate amount of hours and fees expended for each of those matters.

16. Covington also maintains records of all actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the rendition of professional services. A schedule setting forth the categories of expenses and amounts for which reimbursement is requested is attached as Exhibit D.

SUMMARY OF SERVICES RENDERED

17. The following summary highlights the principal areas to which Covington devoted substantial time and attention during the Seventh Application Period. The full extent of Covington's services is reflected in Covington's time records.

Foreign Trade Control Representation

18. Covington provided advice and assistance to the Debtors on many facets of U.S. foreign trade control laws, including compliance with export laws administered by the Departments of Commerce and State, and economic sanctions programs administered by the Treasury Department, and assisted the Debtors in reviewing certain transactions by the Debtors' foreign affiliates for compliance with U.S. foreign trade controls. Covington also provided advice and assistance to the Company on a matter involving the application of regulations administered by the Environmental Protection Agency and Department of Transportation.

19. Covington requests $25,175.00 in fees incurred in connection with this work during the Seventh Application Period.

Bankruptcy Case Administration

20. During the Seventh Application Period, Covington prepared and drafted the Sixth Application and all supporting documents and addressed ongoing supplemental disclosure issues.

21. Covington requests $7,707.00 in fees incurred in connection with bankruptcy administrative work during the Seventh Application Period, of which $1,745.04 related to supplemental disclosures and $5,961.96 related to preparation of the Sixth Application.

COMPENSATION SOUGHT FOR SEVENTH APPLICATION PERIOD

22. The allowance of interim compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in bankruptcy cases is expressly provided for in section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code:

[A] debtor's attorney, or any professional person . . . may apply to the court not more than once every 120 days after an order for relief in a case under this title, or more often if the court permits, for such compensation for services rendered . . . as is provided under section 330 of this title.

11 U.S.C. § 331.

23. The First and Third Interim Compensation Orders require professionals in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases to serve monthly fee statements upon notice parties listed in those Orders,² to obtain allowance of compensation and reimbursement of 80% of fees and 100% of expenses identified in each monthly statement. Approximately every 120 days, professionals in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases served and filed with the Court an application for interim or final compensation pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code. These Interim Compensation Orders are not intended to alter the fee application requirements set forth in sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code. See First Interim Compensation Order at ¶ 2(b).

24. Section 330(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part, that a court may award to a professional person, including a debtor's attorney:

reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the . . . professional person, or attorney

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1). The Congressional intent and policy expressed in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code is to provide for adequate compensation to attract qualified and competent practitioners to bankruptcy cases.

25. Pursuant to the Modified Plan, final requests for payment of professional claims and request for reimbursement of expenses are to be filed by December 31, 2009.

26. Covington submits that its request for allowance of compensation in the amount of $32,882.00 for the Seventh Application Period is reasonable. The services rendered by Covington, as highlighted above, were necessary to fulfill the Debtors' and the Special Committee's requests for legal counsel.

² As modified by the Joint Interest Agreement Order.

27. Covington made efforts during the Seventh Application Period to work with the Debtors' other counsel to ensure that there is no unnecessary duplication of work between Covington and such other firms. Covington and the other firms retained in these chapter 11 cases clearly delineated the division of labor between them to maximize the efficient usage of their combined resources by the Debtors' estate.

28. The services rendered by Covington during the Seventh Application Period were performed diligently and efficiently. When possible, Covington delegated tasks to lower-cost junior attorneys or, for discrete matters, to attorneys with specialized expertise in the particular task at issue. While that approach may have required intra-office conferences or involved individual attorneys who spent only a few hours on the matter at hand, the net result was enhanced cost efficiency. The blended hourly rate for persons who billed time to the Debtors during the Seventh Application Period, excluding paralegal or other paraprofessional time, is approximately $362.11³.

29. The services rendered to the Debtors by Covington during the Seventh Application Period, after writing off the time for timekeepers who billed less than three hours during the Seventh Application Period,⁴ required an aggregate expenditure of 93.80 recorded hours of the time of attorneys and paraprofessionals. Based upon the number of hours spent and Covington's hourly billing rate established by the engagement letter dated June 8, 2005, and the increases to Covington's billing rates that became effective on June 8, 2006 and June

³ This figure was calculated by dividing the total amount of fees billed by attorneys for services rendered by the total number of hours billed by attorneys.

8, 2007, the value of the recorded services rendered by Covington's attorneys and paraprofessionals during the Seventh Application Period is $32,882.00. Exhibit D sets forth a list of such individuals, the aggregate amount of time expended by each and the current hourly billing rate for each. The fair and reasonable value of the services rendered by Covington to the Debtors and recorded during the Seventh Application Period is set forth in Exhibit C and summarized above.

DISBURSEMENTS DURING THE SEVENTH APPLICATION PERIOD

30. Covington incurred actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses during the Seventh Application Period, in connection with the rendition of the professional services described above, in the amount of $73.59, as set forth in detail in Exhibit E.⁵

31. The disbursements for which Covington seeks reimbursement include the following:

1. Duplicating - Charged at $0.10 per page;
2. Telecommunications - Long-distance calls and long-distance facsimile transmissions are billed at actual cost. There is no charge for incoming facsimiles;
3. Computer Research Charges - Covington's practice is to bill clients for LEXIS and Westlaw research at actual cost; and therefore includes such charges in this Final Application.

COMPLIANCE WITH LOCAL RULES, U.S. TRUSTEE GUIDELINES AND FEE COMMITTEE GUIDELINES

32. Covington submits that this Final Application complies with the guidelines set forth by this Court in its Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in the Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases adopted by the Court on April 19, 1995 (the “Local Rules”), and its administrative orders M-104 and M-150, and with the U.S. Trustee’s Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses filed under 11 U.S.C. § 330 (the “U.S. Trustee Guidelines”).

33. For the most part, Covington believes that the Fee Examiner and Fee Committee Guidelines track the U.S. Trustee Guidelines. Covington’s Final Application deviates from the Fee Committee Guidelines in certain very minor respects described below.

34. With the exception of Corrine Goldstein, a senior partner in Covington’s International Trade and Finance practice group who billed 2.10 hours during the period, Covington has written off all time for timekeepers who billed less than three hours during the Seventh Application Period, because attorneys and other timekeepers who spend less than three hours during a three month period are likely to be transitory. As set forth in footnote 4, Corrine Goldstein’s expertise on matters related to the Debtors’ case is invaluable and necessary to Covington’s representation.

35. The Fee Committee Guidelines disfavor time spent by attorneys and staff on “administrative and clerical” tasks. Although some Covington timekeepers may have engaged in tasks that appear to be clerical in nature, those tasks in fact required considerable knowledge of the Debtors’ case and skills far beyond what would be needed for rote, truly uncomplicated chores. In each case, the tasks performed, generally by paraprofessionals or junior attorneys, required judgment, training and substantive awareness of the case. They were in all cases intended to make the work more efficient.

FINAL ALLOWANCE OF ALL FEES AND EXPENSES

36. In addition to approving the fees and expenses Covington incurred during the Seventh Application Period, Covington submits that the Court should also enter an order approving all fees and expenses previously awarded on an interim basis in respect of the first sixth interim applications. As detailed above and in Covington's interim fee applications, Covington has provided prompt, efficient and highly qualitative assistance to the Debtors as requested throughout the case. Covington also cooperated with the Fee Committee in voluntarily reducing its fees and expenses as recommended by the committee during prior fee application periods. Covington respectfully submits that payment of the fees sought herein, as well as the reimbursement for expenses sought herein, is eminently fair and reasonable.

PROCEDURE

37. In accordance with the applicable orders and rules, Covington has provided notice of this Final Application to the 2002 notice list, and has served the Final Application with all exhibits on: the Debtors, their attorneys, the United States Trustee, counsel to and Chair of the Creditor's Committee, counsel to and the chair of the Equity Committee, the Fee Examiner and the members of the Fee Committee. Covington submits that given the circumstances and the notice of the relief requested herein, no other or further notice is required.

38. No previous motion for the relief sought herein has been made to this or any other court.

CONCLUSION

Covington respectfully requests that this Court enter an order awarding Covington:

1. Interim compensation from the Debtors for services rendered for the period from October 1, 2007 through January 25, 2008, inclusive, in the amount of $32,882.00;
2. Reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the rendition of such services, in the amount of $73.59;
3. Final approval of its fees and expenses incurred from October 8, 2005, through January 25, 2008, in the amounts of $1,883,390.41 and $60,324.00 respectively; and
4. Such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

- d) In providing a reimbursable service, Covington does not make a profit on that service, whether the service is performed by Covington in-house or through a third party.

7. Section B.2 of the Local Guidelines: I certify that Covington has been providing, on a monthly basis, statements of Covington's fees and disbursements for each month in accordance with the procedures approved by this Court in the Interim Fee Order dated November 4, 2005 (Docket No. 869), the First Supplemental Fee Order dated March 8, 2006 (Docket No. 2747), the Second Supplemental Fee Order dated March 28, 2006 (Docket No. 2986), the Third Supplemental Fee Order dated May 5, 2006 (Docket No. 3630), the Fourth Supplemental Fee Order, the Fifth Supplemental Fee Order and as otherwise agreed to with the above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively, the "Debtors" or the "Company") and the Office of the United States Trustee pursuant to the Joint Interest Agreement Order dated April 18, 2006 (Docket No. 3279).

8. Section B.3 of the Local Guidelines: I certify that copies of the Final Application with complete exhibits are being provided to (a) the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York; (b) attorneys for the Debtors; and (c) the Debtors; (d) counsel for and the Chair of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors; and (e) counsel for and the Chair of the Official Committee of Equity Holders. The Debtors have consented to the filing of this Final Application.

9. No agreement or understanding exists between Covington and any person for a division of compensation or reimbursement received or to be received herein or in connection with the Debtors' chapter 11 cases.

10. As of the date of the Final Application, Covington has received no payment or promise of payment for the services rendered in these chapter 11 cases, other than as noted in the Final Application.

11. Before the Petition Date, Covington performed numerous services for the Debtors. As a result of these prepetition services, Covington was owed approximately $263,559.79, for which Covington filed a timely proof of claim. Neither the compensation nor expenses requested pursuant to this Final Application includes any portion of this amount. With Delphi's consent, Covington sold its claim and no longer holds a claim against the Debtors.
